Senator Newman Speaks Here.

Senator J. W. Newman, Democratic nominee for Commissioner of Agriculture spoke to a very well filled house in this city Saturday afternoon. His speech was along the regular line of the campaign, though he made a special appeal to the vote of the farmers, and declared that the farmers in voting the Republican ticket displayed the most charitable act possible for them to make. Mr. Newman is a pleasant speaker and his speech was well received.

The Registration.

The registration in Clay City Tuesday showed a total of 180. 81 Democrats, 30 Republicans and 10 Independents. This is a considerable falling off of all parties except in the Independents. There has been 200 votes polled in this city, and this number of voters are evidently in the city today but they did not register Tuesday.

Don't forget to hear Governor Beckham and Ruby Lafoon, Democratic candidate for State Treasurer at Stanton next Thursday at 1 o'clock.

Ganderbone's Oct. Forecast.

(COPYRIGHTED 1907 BY C. H. RIETH.)

Welcome, welcome, sweet October when the quail shall whistle shrill, when the coal man gets in action with his pesky little bill; when the frost and pumpkin poet sings the old familiar strains, and the football gladiators scramble one another's brains.

Doubly welcome, hallowed season,

When the wild goose travels space,

When the hunter in the wildwood shoots the rabbit in the face.

When the last years hat made over

Shows up in the new fall stock, And the bug-fed turkey shudders Every time he sees the block.

Secretary Taft will be the leading presidential candidate for the month. He will reach Japan on his trip around the world, and when he steps ashore, the island will tip up. The Mikado will have him lifted to the Imperial Roof Garden with block and tackle, and the populace will hold the roof up while Bill and Mutsu-hito eat rice cakes together and open a few bottles of saki to the continued amity of nations.

In our country, President Roosevelt will proceed early in the month upon his annual fresh water cruise. He will go down the Mississippi from Keokuk to Memphis, while cheering multitudes congregate in the banks and count his teeth. Uncle Joe Cannon will buy another thousand feet of lightning rod, buckwheat cakes will renew their tug-of-war with Epsom salts in the innards of man, and the cost of living will take a bird's-eye view of the economic proposition.

The autumn nights inspiring shall grow a little longer, and the breath of fall on cider sweet shall grow a little stronger. The husbandman shall sell his hogs and think to prosper on it, but the good housewife will take the dough and buy a winter bonnet.

The husky husker in the corn

Will trill his little ballad,

The raccoon in the forest deep

Will eat persimmon solid.

The robin redbreast, growing chilled,

Will slowly southward flutter,

And the angels in the skies will catch

The scent of apple butter.

The moon will be full on the 21st. Campers will go off to the woods to play poker all night and sleep all day. Hog-killing time will fill the hog with concern for his near future, and he will hustle around after acorns in philosophic enjoyment of his last few days.

The farmer with the mortgage

Who is prone to giving notes

Will figure up the proceeds

From wheat and corn and oats,

And wonder if his cash in hand

Will pull him out the hole

Or whether he will have to give

A "mortgage on his soul."

The hunting season will keep the rabbit on the wing and the gun shot from town will range into the country with his burr-proof gun and his hammerless corduroys. He will flush a bird and almost hit a cow, and then buy his game from a native who sports a bored out army musket.

The Amalgamated Game Self-Preservation Society will soon require all hunters to carry a large license tag so that all game may know when it is legally shot at. Be glad, be glad, the worst is past.

The next few weeks look good, The tramp has quit the road because

It's time for sawing wood.

November crisp is on the way

With cold Thanksgiving airs,

And the President will set the day

In time for turkey prayers.

Burnam and Knox.

At Republican convention at Irvine Thursday, Judge A. R. Burnam, of Richmond, was nominated for State Senate and Dr. Knox, of this county, was nominated for Representative. Every term of State Senate has been filled by a Madison county man, and Madison county men only have been nominated by both parties since the district formed a number of years ago, all because Madison has more votes than the other three counties combined in the district—Powell, Estill and Lee. The Estill Herald don't like this and speaks as follows:

"The result was about the same as has been the case for thirty years, the 'Mountain' man has the promise of a clear field. Dr. Evans of Beattyville, was the only candidate to enter the convention with instructed votes, and had Madison considered her promise of four years ago, binding, Dr. Evans would have been nominated. Judge Burnam is a son of Hon. C. F. Burnam, who has held the office, the Lord knows how long. By the way, isn't there an A. R. Burnam, Jr.?"

Burgher-Hamman.

John W. Burgher and Miss Ella Hamman were married yesterday evening at the residence of Philip Hamman in this city at 7:30, the Rev. R. A. Irvin officiating. The groom is a son of H. G. Burgher of this city. The bride is a daughter of Philip Hamman. The TIMES extend congratulations.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For County Clerk.

For Jailor.

We are authorized to announce JOHN P. GAYLORD candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Reports from Louisville are to the effect that the Kentucky State Development Association, permanently organized at the Fifth State Development Convention held in Winchester last October, is rapidly maturing its plans for an active campaign in the interest of state development. The Association has called the Sixth State Development Convention for Louisville, November 19, 20 and 21. President E. J. McDermott of the Association is arranging the most interesting and entertaining three days' programme in the history of State Development. The convention will be addressed by men of national and international reputation—experts in their several lines.

The Association, however, is laying its plans for a scope of work much broader than can possibly be attained in an annual convention. It is its purpose to exploit to the world the untold wealth of Kentucky, day in and day out to the end that our products and resources may command the attention of capital seeking investment. The constitution of the Association adopted at the Winchester Convention calls upon the public spirited citizens of Kentucky to take membership in the Association at $1.00 a year. In addition to this, every Fiscal Court is asked to make a small appropriation towards the support of the Association. At the semi-annual meeting of the Fiscal Court of this Powell county, being held this week, our County Judge and Magistrates will be asked to appropriate $21.00. This may be done now, legally, as the last General Assembly gave to Fiscal Courts the power to make appropriations for the exploitation of the products and resources of their counties. The County Judge and every magistrate of our county, by making this appropriation, will be clothed with authority to name two delegates each to the Sixth State Development Convention who by virtue of this appointment will become members of the Development Association for the ensuing year.

The object of the State Development Association, as outlined in the constitution, shall be to discuss and promote such matters as will advance the interests and redound to the benefit of Kentucky; recommend all needed and beneficial improvements in the State's affairs; to advertise the resources of the State; to secure suitable information concerning immigration to the State, and make efforts to induce desirable immigrants; to do all and everything looking towards the advancement and development of the State in all branches of industry, and to have for its principal object the making of Kentucky a State second to none in wealth, education, enlightenment and influence. Such an Association deserves and should receive the support of every community in the State.

It is our hope that the Fiscal Court of our county will not turn a deaf ear to the appeal of the officers and directors of the Association in whose personnel is represented every section of Kentucky, but on the contrary will make an appropriation of the amount asked for.

City Democratic Convention.

The Democrats of Clay City met in mass convention at the council chamber Saturday night for the purpose of naming a city ticket. C. W. Barnett was made permanent chairman and J. E. Burgher secretary.

The following candidates were nominated by acclamation:

J. E. Burgher, Mayor;
T. J. Fletcher, Police Judge;
Councilmen:

J. H. O'Rear,
S. D. Rose,
Wm. Mountz,
C. C. Eaton,
Tom Edge,
J. T. Newkirk.

The convention was a very harmonious session and everything points to victory for Democracy in Clay City this fall.

Easy to Mix This.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

A Slick Swindler.

Here is a new one. A well dressed stranger presents himself at a farm house and tells of his loss of a valuable diamond pin in the road and solicits the aid of the children to help him find it. No pin is found, but before leaving the stranger gives his name and address and leaves an offer of a reward of $100 for the finding and return of the pin. A few days later a tramp appears at the farm house and asks for something to eat. At the same time he tells of finding a handsome pin down the road. The family eagerly purchased the pin for a good price, expecting to secure the $100 reward for it. But when he writes to the address of the stranger no reply comes and in time he discovers that he is "buncoed" and that the pin he has purchased at a fancy price is simply a worthless piece of glass in gilt setting, worth probably 10 cents.

N. R. Swope will leave today for New River, Tenn. where he will do mechanical work on a large saw mill going up there at fancy wages.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Doctor Must Damages.

In an opinion by Judge Nunn, the court affirmed judgment of the Pulaski Circuit Court in a damage case of J. A. Baute against Maggie Haynes. The appellee, a nine-year-old girl, lost an arm which had been broken, through alleged carelessness and negligence upon the part of appellant who was the attending physician. She sued for $5,000 and secured judgment below for $1,000. The court here says the evidence properly went to the jury, and no substantial error was committed during the trial. The contention of appellant was that he was not employed to attend the patient after setting the broken bones.

The Walters' Ferry Bridge which has been completed some weeks has been taken up by the committee and paid for by them. Not quite all the money has yet been paid in by the subscribers to settle for the bridge, but this will be met by the time the approaches are completed so the bridge can be opened for travel in a few weeks. The Powell Fiscal Court now in session has paid $700 00 toward the construction of said bridge. $100 00 to committee for right of way paid Curtis Bowman and $600 00 on bridge proper. They also allowed $200 toward the construction of the approaches. This together with local aid in making the fills to the trestle will, it is thought, complete the approaches.

WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL

And

THE TIMES

Both one year for only

One Dollar.

The Presidential election is approaching. "Times have changed. That is all. Mr. Watterson is a Democrat, and has always been a Democrat, never a Republican. Essential differences out of the way, Democrats are getting together. The Courier Journal is going to support the ticket. And there you have it."

Send your order for this combination to us—not to the Courier-Journal. The regular price of the Weekly Courier Journal alone is $1 a year.
